WHY CHURCH MEMBERSHIP?

Why should I bother with Church Membership? The phrase 'Church Membership' isn't found in the Bible, so why should I care about this?

That's a good question!

Let's begin with the famous question Jesus asked his disciples: "Who do people say the Son of Man is?" The apostles gave several answers, but it was Peter, by the revelation of God, who responded, "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Jesus responded with the famous saying, "You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the forces of hell will not overpower it." Notice that Jesus calls the church "my church." The Church is Christ's church. He is the Lord of the church for whom He gave His life. Here in this passage we see the word "church" used to describe the Church, that is, the universal church comprised of all who have come to Christ by repentance and faith.

While there are several other places in the New Testament where Jesus refers to the universal church, the most common use of the term "church" is the local church, made up of believers who gather regularly to worship, to serve, and to care for others. In these local churches there was structure and accountability in the congregations. For example, in Matthew 18:16-17 Jesus taught about what to do when a "brother" sins against you. Jesus taught that we were to go to that person privately. If that person did not respond they were to go again with another believer. But if that person failed to respond, Jesus said, "If he pays no attention to them, tell the church. But if he doesn't pay attention even to the church, let him be like an unbeliever and a tax collector!" Obviously Jesus understood the local church to be an outpost of the Kingdom of Heaven in which believers live in accountable relationships with one another. The church was not a club, an association, nor a gathering of friends. The church was, and should be today, a place where our commitment to Christ is lived out in our commitment to one another in that church. Church membership means that we take seriously our love and care for one another, even if that care could result in church discipline when a brother or sister in our church gets off the path.

Church membership means that we recognize our oneness in Christ Jesus. The Apostle Paul wrote, "Now as we have many parts in one body, and all the parts do not have the same function, in the same way we who are many are one body in Christ and individually members of one another" (Romans 12:4-5). In our conversion we become not only one with Christ but one with each other! That is why sometimes we find ourselves closer to our fellow brother or sister in the church than we do with unbelievers in our own family. Our relationship with our unsaved family members may be limited by time, but fellowship as believers goes on for eternity.

Church membership means that we acknowledge our need for each other. The Apostle Paul wrote in 1 Corinthians 12 about how the church depends on the various gifts given by the Spirit for the full functioning of the church. He wrote, “But now God has placed each one of the parts in one body just as He wanted. And if they were all the same part, where would the body be? Now there are many parts, yet one body” (1 Cor. 12:18-20). As members of the church we remember that we are dependent on each other’s gifts and skills to live out Christ’s commands to be the church that God has called us to be.

Church membership means even more at Grace Redeemer Community Church because we are part of the Evangelical Free Church of America. In the EFCA, and in our own constitution, the congregation has a significant role in the life of the congregation. Grace Redeemer is an elder-led church, but all major issues require congregational affirmation. This means that our church needs members who seek God’s direction in the life of our congregation and will participate in the decisions of the congregation.

Membership means that we consciously move away from the prevalent “Me-ism” and self-absorption so common in our society today. Mark Dever in his book Nine Marks of a Healthy Church writes, “Joining a church increases our sense of ownership of the work of the church, of its community, of its budget, of its goals. We move from being pampered consumers to becoming joyous proprietors. We stop arriving late and complaining that we don’t get exactly what we want; instead, we arrive early and try to help others with what they are doing. We must begin to view membership less as a loose affiliation useful only on occasion and more as a regular responsibility involving us in one another’s lives for the purpose of the Gospel.”

At Grace Redeemer Community Church we encourage you to seriously and prayerfully consider becoming a member. One of the common slogans of the EFCA is “We are better together.” As we work and serve together we can grow in our love for Christ and for one another. Please prayerfully read through this material. As elders we would be happy to discuss any questions you might have.

The Doctrinal Statement of the Evangelical Free Church of America

God

1. We believe in one God, Creator of all things, holy, infinitely perfect, and eternally existing in a loving unity of three equally divine Persons: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Having limitless knowledge and sovereign power, God has graciously purposed from eternity to redeem a people for Himself and to make all things new for His own glory.

The Bible

2. We believe that God has spoken in the Scriptures, both Old and New Testaments, through the words of human authors. As the verbally inspired Word of God, the Bible is without error in the original writings, the complete revelation of His will for salvation, and the ultimate authority by which every realm of human knowledge and endeavor should be judged. Therefore, it is to be believed in all that it teaches, obeyed in all that it requires, and trusted in all that it promises.

The Human Condition

3. We believe that God created Adam and Eve in His image, but they sinned when tempted by Satan. In union with Adam, human beings are sinners by nature and by choice, alienated from God, and under His wrath. Only through God's saving work in Jesus Christ can we be rescued, reconciled and renewed.

Jesus Christ

4. We believe that Jesus Christ is God incarnate, fully God and fully man, one Person in two natures. Jesus-Israel's promised Messiah-was conceived through the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He lived a sinless life, was crucified under Pontius Pilate, arose bodily from the dead, ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father as our High Priest and Advocate.

The Work of Christ

5. We believe that Jesus Christ, as our representative and substitute, shed His blood on the cross as the perfect, all-sufficient sacrifice for our sins. His atoning death and victorious resurrection constitute the only ground for salvation.

The Holy Spirit

6. We believe that the Holy Spirit, in all that He does, glorifies the Lord Jesus Christ. He convicts the world of its guilt. He regenerates sinners, and in Him they are baptized into union with Christ and adopted as heirs in the family of God. He also indwells, illuminates, guides, equips and empowers believers for Christ-like living and service.

The Church

7. We believe that the true church comprises all who have been justified by God's grace through faith alone in Christ alone. They are united by the Holy Spirit in the body of Christ, of which He is the Head. The true church is manifest in local churches, whose membership should be composed only of believers. The Lord Jesus mandated two ordinances, baptism and the Lord's Supper, which visibly and tangibly express the gospel. Though they are not the means of salvation, when celebrated by the church in genuine faith, these ordinances confirm and nourish the believer.

Christian Living

8. We believe that God's justifying grace must not be separated from His sanctifying power and purpose. God commands us to love Him supremely and others sacrificially, and to live out our faith with care for one another, compassion toward the poor and justice for the oppressed. With God's Word, the Spirit's power, and fervent prayer in Christ's name, we are to combat the spiritual forces of evil. In obedience to Christ's commission, we are to make disciples among all people, always bearing witness to the gospel in word and deed.

Christ's Return

9. We believe in the personal, bodily and premillennial return of our Lord Jesus Christ. The coming of Christ, at a time known only to God, demands constant expectancy and, as our blessed hope, motivates the believer to godly living, sacrificial service and energetic mission.

Response and Eternal Destiny

10. We believe that God commands everyone everywhere to believe the gospel by turning to Him in repentance and receiving the Lord Jesus Christ. We believe that God will raise the dead bodily and judge the world, assigning the unbeliever to condemnation and eternal conscious punishment and the believer to eternal blessedness and joy with the Lord in the new heaven and the new earth, to the praise of His glorious grace. Amen.

Our Values

Grace Redeemer Community Church

WE VALUE WORSHIP as our highest privilege and calling.

We delight to praise the Triune God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—together each week and reverently to proclaim His majesty, character and work in our world.

WE VALUE THE SCRIPTURES, both Old and New Testaments, as God's authoritative revelation without error. We proclaim and study the Scriptures primarily through expository preaching in corporate worship but also in small groups and individually that we might be faithful doers of His truth and not hearers only.

WE VALUE THE LORD'S SUPPER and share it weekly at Christ's invitation. We remember His sacrifice on our behalf, are strengthened through His presence with us at His table, and are reminded of our new identity in Him.

WE VALUE PRAYER, both corporate and personal, to communicate with our Father through the power of His Holy Spirit. We believe God chooses to work through the prayers of His people.

WE VALUE MUSIC as an essential part of our corporate worship. We enjoy hymns that we might delight in their timeless truths, and choruses that we may meditate on God's majesty and greatness.

WE VALUE GODLY LEADERSHIP through elders, deacons and appointed ministry leaders who seek to guide, encourage, strengthen and serve those within our congregation.

WE VALUE OUR HISTORICAL CONNECTION to the Church over the centuries and treasure that legacy. We confess the Nicene Creed as a faithful expression of the essential beliefs of the Church over time. We mark the seasons of Advent and Lent that we may prepare ourselves for the high points of the Christian calendar, Christmas and Easter.

WE VALUE COMMUNITY within the congregation. As members, we are a local Body of Christ, each using our spiritual gifts to serve and care for one another.

WE VALUE OUTREACH both locally and globally to share Christ with lost people and to disciple life-long followers of Him. We want to extend care to the broken and needy around us in our community.

GRACE REDEEMER COMMUNITY CHURCH

CHURCH DISCIPLINE STATEMENT

“And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? ‘My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. 6 For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives.’” Hebrews 12:5-6

I. Definitions

A. The Church

The church is a holy community created by God and intended to reflect His character and glory in the midst of a fallen world. God loves the church and His ultimate purpose for His church is to make it a gift to His Son; thus He calls it the Bride of Christ. For this reason the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are constantly at work to purify the church and bring her to maturity (Eph 4:7-16; 5:25-27).

B. Life in the Church

The Bible provides standards from God for the faith and life of all who are a part of the church. Elders are commissioned by God to instruct, govern and preserve local churches within these bounds of doctrine and practice. In addition, He calls individual church members to both apply the Word to themselves and also to encourage and admonish one another in it.

C. Church Discipline

Church discipline is the corrective process that God has given to the church when a member persists in sin. Such persistent sins may be:

- Personal – sins which wrong or injure particular individuals; e.g. slander, anger, bitterness, theft (Matt 18:15-20)
- General – sins which are not directed at a particular individual; e.g. heresy, divisiveness, immorality, drunkenness (Gal 1:8-9; Rom 16:17-18; 1Cor 5)
- Private – sins known only to a few (Matt 18:15; Prov. 25:9)
- Public – sins which are conspicuous and widely known (1Cor 5:13)

Church discipline is neither intended to humiliate someone nor to seek revenge. It is an expression of God’s fatherly love (Prov. 3:11-12). Those involved in bringing this correction are to be motivated by sincere love and their words and actions are to combine both grace and truth.

II. Purpose

The purpose of this gift from God is threefold:

- The glory of God (Eph 3:20-21)
- The unity and purity of the church (Eph 5:25-27)
- The restoration of the straying church member (Matt 18:15-17)

III. Practice

A. Self-discipline. God calls every believer to be conformed into the image of His Son. This involves hearing and obeying God's Word and results in each believer disciplining himself so as to conform to his Savior. We recognize that most "church discipline" situations start and end here, with the believer diligently applying God's Word to his life (1Tim 4:7).

B. Minor offenses. Though in Christ every believer has been declared righteous, the Christian life is a process of gradual change, of becoming in character what God has declared us in standing. This means that every Christian will exhibit flaws and imperfections and every relationship will include some measure of tension and disharmony. Minor offenses are those that do not endanger the safety or well-being of a believer, a relationship or a church. In light of the gospel, these are best overlooked, in the manner in which God forbears and overlooks many such traits in us (Prov. 19:11; Rom 15:1; 1Pet 4:8).

C. Process for addressing sin in a fellow believer. Where self-discipline fails and where a believer sins in a manner that should not be overlooked, God provides direction for what to do. Ordinarily the process moves through stages, as described by Jesus himself in Matthew 18:15-17. At each stage the goal is to secure the repentance and restoration of the sinning brother or sister. For this reason each stage may include more than one meeting. The process ceases whenever the straying member evidences believable repentance and is restored to the Lord and others.

1. Private inquiry. When a Christian sees another church member that appears to be engaged in sin that is repeated or serious, normally he should privately, gently and graciously approach that person to inquire and, if necessary, to confront. If repentance is required and takes place, the process ends. If there is disagreement over the need for repentance or if there is refusal to repent, he should involve one or two others (Matt 18:15; Gal 6:1; Luke 17:3).

2. Establishing the matter with witnesses. The concerned Christian should now involve one or two other church members, perhaps including a leader or elder, and return to the brother or sister caught in sin. If this group confirms that the brother or sister is in fact sinning, is unrepentant and is unwilling to change, then the pastors of the church should be informed so that they can confirm the facts and appeal for change (Matt 18:16; Deut 19:15).

3. Telling the church. If the straying brother or sister remains unwilling to change, failing to heed various appeals from members and/or elders, the elders normally will inform the church of the member and the sin. Church members will be urged to pursue the erring member and appeal for repentance (Matt 18:17; 1Tim 5:20).

4. Excluding from church membership. If, after a reasonable period of time, the member under discipline does not change, then the elders will inform the church again, this time acting to remove that person from church membership and instruct the church to treat the excluded member as an unbeliever. (Matt 18:17; 1Cor 5:5; 2Thes 3:14-15; 1Tim 1:20).

5. Appeal. If at any point a church member believes he is being treated unjustly or inappropriately in the disciplinary process, he is welcome to appeal to the elders.

D. Public sins. The elders may decide to abbreviate or eliminate the above process if the sin is especially conspicuous or serious, or if the member proves to be divisive, disruptive or is seen as a threat to lead others into sin (Rom 16:17; 1Cor 5:13; Titus 3:10-11).

E. Disciplinary actions. As the disciplinary process progresses through the above stages, the actions that may be taken include, but are not limited to, private and public admonition, withdrawal of fellowship and removal from membership (1Cor 11:17-34).

F. Restoration. The restoration of the straying believer stands at the heart of the practice of church discipline. Throughout the disciplinary process the elders will seek to define a biblically informed pathway of repentance for the sinning member. If a member is removed from membership, the elders will urge the church members to continue to seek opportunities to call the person to repentance and faith in Christ. When the church has been made aware of an individual's sin, they will also be made aware of an individual's repentance in a way that is appropriate to the situation and the good of the church, ensuring that as many people as possible may rejoice (Gal 6:1; Luke 15:7; 2Cor 2:5-11).

G. If a member leaves the church to avoid or cut short the disciplinary process. At times a member may withdraw from the church to avoid or cut short church discipline and its consequences. The elders and members of our church recognize our obligation and opportunity to restore the wandering member to the Lord and to His church. While the church cannot force a withdrawing member to remain in this congregation, the church has the right and responsibility to restore, to bring the disciplinary process to an orderly conclusion, and to make final determination as to the person's membership status at the time withdrawal is sought or acknowledged. If the elders learn that a member who left under church discipline is now attending another church, the elders may inform that church of the situation, seeking to encourage the brother or sister to repent and be restored to the Lord and to any people he or she have offended. The elders may also warn the other church to be on guard against harm that the accused might do to their members (Eph 4:1-6).

H. Receiving excluded members. People who attend our church, but have been excluded from another church, will not be allowed to partake of the sacraments, become members or participate in the fellowship of the church until they have repented of their sins, made a reasonable effort to be reconciled, and satisfied any biblically legitimate requirements of their former church.

Grace Redeemer Community Church:

Church Discipline Statement

- I have read the document entitled “Church Discipline Statement” provided by Grace Redeemer Community Church and understand that Grace Redeemer Community Church can and will exercise appropriate church discipline if deemed necessary as determined by the Elders. The goal of such discipline is for repentance and restoration of the person into renewed fellowship with God and with the church.
- I willingly resolve to not bring any legal action against Grace Redeemer Community Church in as much as this church is in compliance with its own procedures and policies as stated above.
